Today

The final report on fourth quarter economic growth offers insights into corporate profits. In Washington, meanwhile, renewable energy — a new favorite sector for investors — is on the Senate's agenda today.

Corporate profits

The first economy-wide look at corporate profits in the fourth quarter could disappoint investors. Earnings of public and private companies, reported in the quarter's final report on gross domestic product, are expected to slip from third-quarter levels. It would be the first quarter-on-quarter decrease in nearly four years, barring recent hurricane-affected periods. The weakness could slow business investment this year. Meanwhile, economists don't expect a revision to fourth-quarter preliminary GDP growth of 2.2 percent.

Clean energy

Environmental issues have taken on a new urgency in Congress. The president of General Electric's energy division and the European Union's ambassador to the United States will speak before the Senate's finance committee, chaired by Sen. Max Baucus (D-MT). The agenda: tax incentives to move renewable energy sources such as wind and solar into the mainstream. Congress's push for

Family Dollar earnings

Have mortgage sector problems whipsawed lower-income consumers? JPMorgan analyst Charles Grom says he will be monitoring discount chain Family Dollar for clues when it reports its fiscal second quarter profit. While profit is expected to rise, analysts want to know if March comparable-store sales will recover after a weak start to the year.

Briefly

Among companies reporting earnings this morning are financial services company A.G. Edwards (AGE, $1.06 est./$1.05 act.), used car retailer CarMax (KMX, $0.21, $0.19) and freight shipper UTI Worldwide (UTIW, $0.26, $0.23). After the bell: Contract electronics manufacturer Soltron Corp. (SLR, $0.05, $0.03).

Interstrates

Treasury yields were little changed, as Federal Reserve Chairman Ben Bernanke expressed concerns about inflation and growth, giving investors little incentive to buy or sell bonds.

FundFocus

This fund buys steady growers with reasonable price tags. Its conservative strategy fared poorly in the late-1990s technology stock rally, but returns have rebounded since. Low fees are a plus.
