Proof that with a little time, investment in resources and creative writing, an award-winning piece can easily be achieved.

Best Feature Reporting Medium Market Television Second Place

Mandi Sheridan and Kris Sproles
WDTN-TV, Dayton
"Crossing Guard"

We were impressed that the reporter and photographer team told this story without being there for the crucial video. A big shout out to the photographer for the best pictures and editing in the category.

Best Enterprise Reporting Medium Market Television First Place

Caryn Golden and Bill Krause
WHIO-TV, Dayton
"Street Souljahz"

We were blown away by the concept, the context and the fearlessness of going in and tackling an issue that speaks to an audience. Great story. Congratulations.

Best Enterprise Reporting Medium Market Television Second Place

Jonathan Walsh
WTOL-TV, Toledo
"Cancer Cluster"

Enterprise reporting finds an issue and hammers away at it until there is resolution. Job is to stay on top of it and break new ground. Team has done both extremely well.

Best Photographer Medium Market Television First Place

Robert M. Meluch
WFMJ-TV , Youngstown

Great sound, video quality, camera angles. Different shots than a viewer might see usually at a local station.

Best Photographer Medium Market Television Second Place

Eric Frisbee
WHIO-TV, Dayton

Great job overall.
